SERENGE

— OUR MISSION —

Inspired by the Tibetan word Tsering, meaning "Long Life." In the high valleys of Baltistan, it is a word of blessing, often heard in the greeting Tashi Serengé. An auspicious long life.

At Serenge Retreat, our mission is to create meaningful hospitality rooted in Balti culture, sustainability, and community. We work closely with local families, farmers, artisans, and guides to support the local economy and preserve traditional knowledge for future generations.

Food is an important part of our identity. In a time when traditional Balti cuisine is slowly being replaced by modern fast food and outside influences, we aim to keep our historical tastes and local recipes alive. Many of our meals are prepared using organic ingredients, seasonal produce, and a farm-to-table approach inspired by village life in Baltistan.

During the harsh winter months from November to March, fresh crops become limited due to heavy cold and snow. Traditionally, families preserved food by drying vegetables, fruits, and herbs during summer. At Serengé, we continue this tradition by serving dried local vegetables, homemade preserves, and greenhouse produce, a reflection of the resilience, wisdom, and simple beauty of mountain life.
